

I think the petition to allocate some 70cm space to our European visitors is a grand idea. It offers convenience and legitimacy we can afford to offer. Any opposition from USA Amateur community is just "NIMBY". Actual usage will probably be so limited they couldn't be found if you went looking for them, but the attitude and the courtesy will be well received. Bravo!